

Gazette reports on Metro Development

The Gazette has reported on the failed WMATA development project at Forest Glen Metro. Read the article here. The article also mentions a zoning amendment that was introduced to try to increase the allowable density of the development - an amendment that was introduced without informing the surrounding communities.