

Who will keep this new entrance clean?

This is an extension of the current Metro entrance tunnel at Forest Glen. That tunnel is kept clean and safe for its metro riders.

Why has janitorial service not prevented the construction of dual entrances at every other Red Line station in our part of the county? Furthermore, since our lives are at risk every time we cross the intersection, surely the county could find a janitor to protect our safety.